BACKGROUND

Jennifer joined the firm in 2011, after earning her BS and Master's degrees in Accounting from University of Oregon. Her love of numbers began in a high school accounting class where she liked the structure within the numbers. Once in college, she learned to appreciate the broader perspective that the numbers also tell a story about a business.

Jennifer particularly enjoys getting to work closely with clients in order to understand how they structure their business and why it works for them, and then getting to compare similar businesses that may be structured differently. There is always lots of variety in her work and her clients, which keeps Jennifer engaged and interested.
